

Model 6525 Microprocessor

This state-of-the-art digital central processor unit accepts up to 8 control stations with only two communicating wires and can control two main propulsion engines and their respective reverse gears or CP propellers. The 6525 also inputs the control of trolling valves and provides all interlocking for regular propulsion systems, including propeller shaft brakes and throttle boosts.

